In recent years, serious contradiction economies emerged in Hong Kong society. The multi-structural economy has put our youths in dilemma when choosing their career paths. At the same time, the influences of globalization, our youths are facing global and cultural changes and challenges. Through media and entrepreneurship, breakthroughs go alongside with our youths into scenes of society and their families in search of their roles and resources.

Through media work, we inspire and encourage young people to critically think and rationalization towards the professional future and personal growth. Meanwhile, we target on developing media and video on web, as well as facilitating them in developing values and building life structures.

Cultural and Audio-visual
Through activities and training, we facilitated the youths in building a positive mental attitude, an ability to work independently, a sense of responsibility and flexibility in interpersonal relationships. We help them establish positive values with courage in their new paths towards life with a mission.

Youth Community
“Breakthrough Square” patterns youths aged 15 to 18 from different backgrounds, with the goal of nurturing them into community to promote love and justice. With training and resources provided, the youths are encouraged to plan creative community actions and share their concerns and hope for the world.

Youth’s Self-discovery and Career Direction
During the second session of the “Youth’s Self-discovery and Career Direction”, a group of participants shared their experience of “Life Debriefing – Youth Mentor Trial Version” Series. They also had chance to discuss with youths the Christian values under different context. “Pathfinding: Discovery of My Way” helped young people to make wise decisions according to their hopes and dreams. Through working together, they can have deeper reflection upon self-discovery and life planning through experiencing activities and personal values.

Path-finding
“Modern Apprentice Series 2010-2012” has arranged a series of “Pathfinding: Discovery of My Way” seminars. Through the seminars, 5 youths have made wise decisions according to their hopes and dreams. They can have deeper reflection upon self-discovery and life planning through experiencing activities and personal values.

Research & Development

Research
Our research work focuses on topics related to youth culture and social innovation, which become the basis for our work at the different levels of our organization. Through our endeavor, we will be able to promote social innovation and share the experiences of different organizations and initiatives. We are committed to promoting social innovation and share the experiences of different organizations and initiatives. Training for Staff
“Breakthrough Square” provides an excellent platform for St. Paul’s Monastic School to share the experience of professional training with other organizations. In the coming year, we will continue to provide training to our staff. Our focus will be on training staff to understand people’s various concerns and responses to local social issues in order to be able to respond to Hong Kong’s special needs and challenges.

Training for Young Workers
We hope to expand our training field to integrate more new social workers and spiritually rich people. Our Sichuan team is responsible for training new teaching staff. A series of training seminars and workshops have been arranged. The seminars are designed to help young people to face challenges and adopt a new social worker attitude. They can learn how to deal with young people who have difficulties and challenges in the social field.

Inter-Personal Counseling
Counseling Services
We help them establish positive values with courage in their new paths towards life with a mission.

Breakthrough provided the following pattern to develop prosperity and to raise awareness to end poverty. The conducted Breakthrough enabled us to continue our mission in helping young people. We will be working hard to solve the problem and poverty, and we can be grateful for your ongoing effort and help in making young people's dream come true.

Cindy Chu, Participant, Orange Archive and volunteer, SY

Doing voluntary work in Breakthrough is like being the disciple of the Lord. When I was in a spiritual trough last year, a voice in my head spoke to me: “You need to go back to the Lord, and don’t allow the devil to lead you.” I thank God for teaching me to be a Breakthrough volunteer. I now feel a great need to be back in the future. Without existing agencies and good works, I feel this opportunity is important and a blessing to me. We appreciate our uniqueness in front of the others. (Cindy) for a revelation and a sudden surprise in the way to meet Christ during rocky times. I really believe that God has brought me to Breakthrough.

To be a “parent” is God’s grace. A proverb states that you will have two opportunities to meet God in this life: the first but surprisingly the way to meet Christ was doing nothing and facing our weaknesses in front of the others. I planned for a revolution opportunity to face God and myself. In our sharing, we admitted our weaknesses and received encouragement to the parents by serving in the parent ministry and supported, meanwhile experience God’s magnificent work. The financial year of Breakthrough falls within 1 July of a year to 30 June of the next year. It is our responsibility to raise awareness of the 21st century generation.

Breakthrough offers Servant Leadership Series, to activate scheme for social concern and play the role of little Post on the web; we do choose “Breakthrough Serve Club” membership, an easy way to do voluntary work, and we will be assigned to unique role by the members who will sacrifice for others and love one’s neighbours as oneself. We help youths relate meaningfully with others and lead lifestyles. We can be proud that the movement can be extended to Modern Apprenticeship scheme, which includes other minority students.

Through a documentary, life series at the “Breakthrough Moments” can target to narrow the generation gap and extend it to young generation in order to bring hope, responsibility and foreseeing in social development. In the year, “Breakthrough Moments” will be launched, “Uzone21” website for young generations, will be extended to be extended to young people and parents itself.
